

Accessing Online Professional Resources

CBE Staff have access to a wide variety of online professional resources:

Please watch the Research & Learning Commons Website for updates.

CBE district license to ProQuest Education Journals:

Access to over 800 professional journals and periodicals in the education field.

To Connect: <http://www.innovativelearning.ca/sec-rlc/rlc-webcat.asp>

NOTE: New username and password!

LearnAlberta.ca's Online Reference Centre

<http://www.learnalberta.ca/OnlineReferenceCentre.aspx?lang=en>

Many of the databases have educational content. i.e. Advanced Placement Source

Calgary Public Library <http://calgarypubliclibrary.com/>

Your $12 annual membership card provides access to all physical and digital collections. Click on E-Library for a list of databases. Includes ERIC!

ATA Library provides access to two online databases

For more information: <http://www.teachers.ab.ca/SiteCollectionDocuments/ATA/Publications/Membership-and-Services/LIB-10%20Library%20Brochure.pdf>

To find the library catalogue, go to the ATA homepage at www.teachers.ab.ca and scroll down to Professional Development. Select ATA Library. Requires access using your ATA account.

D2L LOR (Learning Objects Repository)

<https://d2l.cbe.ab.ca/>

Streamed video, lesson modules, professional resource gallery.

Alumni Memberships to Post-Secondary Institutions

Alumni can often pay for a specialized alumni membership that provides access to library (physical and digital) collections— contact your post-secondary institution for more information.